CreditCards.com Provides Credit Card Search Engine to NASDAQ.com

AUSTIN, Texas--(BUSINESS WIRE)--CreditCards.com announced today an agreement with NASDAQ.com that will provide NASDAQ.com visitors with online access to a wide range of attractive credit card offers, updated daily, from CreditCards.com partners.

Under the agreement, a rate module placed on the NASDAQ.com site will serve as an entryway into the CreditCards.com search engine, where consumers may compare and apply for credit cards from leading issuers in categories such as low-interest, balance transfer and airline cards.

“Consumers are increasingly relying on the Internet as a primary source when they are researching credit card offers,” said Elisabeth DeMarse, CEO of CreditCards.com. “Our new agreement with NASDAQ.com takes advantage of that trend by providing consumers with the tools they need to make better-informed credit card decisions.”

The CreditCards.com rate module and credit card search engine are currently live on the NASDAQ.com website. Site visitors can gain access by simply clicking on the module that will be located in various locations on NASDAQ.com.

NASDAQ.com is the website of NASDAQ, the largest U.S. electronic equity stock market. With approximately 3,200 companies, it lists more companies and, on average, trades more shares per day than any other U.S. market.
