

CreditCards.com Provides Credit Card Search Engine to RagingBull.com

AUSTIN, TX, September 25, 2007 (BUSINESSWIRE) – CreditCards.com announced today an agreement to provide its credit card search engine to RagingBull.com, an online investment community portal and message board site that is part of the eSignal suite of financial and business information products.

The CreditCards.com search engine, containing credit card offers from over 20 credit card issuers, will provide RagingBull.com visitors the ability to select from among a wide range of credit card types including low-interest, rewards, airline and cash back cards.

Under the agreement, a CreditCards.com rate table with the average rates for major credit card categories will be placed in various locations on the RagingBull.com site. Visitors to the RagingBull.com Web site will gain access to the CreditCards.com search engine, which is to be updated daily, by clicking on the rate table.

“CreditCards.com strives to be the foremost destination for consumers who want to make informed decisions about their credit card choices,” said Elisabeth DeMarse, CEO of CreditCards.com. “We are pleased to enter a relationship with such a distinguished investment site as RagingBull.com.”

The CreditCards.com rate table and search engine is expected to go live on RagingBull.com in coming weeks.
