

CreditCards.com Named to 2007 Inc. 500 List

Online Credit Card Comparison Website Ranks No. 205 on list based on three year revenue growth

Austin, TX September 14, 2007 – CreditCards.com, a leading Internet credit card comparison website, announced today their selection to the Inc. Magazine's 26th annual Inc. 500 list. The Inc. 500 represents a list of the fastest growing privately held businesses in the United States. Based on revenue growth of 1050% over the past three years, CreditCards.com was ranked No. 205 on this year's list.

CreditCards.com allows consumers to compare credit card offers from national card issuers and apply securely online for the card that best suits their needs. Credit card offers are organized by issuer, credit quality and popular card segments like low interest, rewards, students and business. The site also provides consumer resources including calculators, a credit card recommender and an extensive library of articles related to credit cards.

Elisabeth DeMarse, president and CEO of CreditCards.com, said, "We are extremely honored to be recognized as one of the nation's most innovative and fastest growing companies. This recognition is a tribute to the hard work of our employees and management team to provide consumers with the tools and resources to make informed credit card decisions."

"If you want to find out which companies are going to change the world, look at the Inc. 500," said Inc. Editor Jane Berentson. "These are the most innovative, dynamic, fast-growth companies in the nation, the ones coming up with solutions to some of our most intractable ills, creating systems that let us conduct business faster and easier, and manufacturing products we soon discover we can't live without. The Inc. 500 list is Inc. magazine's tribute to American business ingenuity and ambition."

The 2007 Inc. 500, as revealed in the September issue of Inc. magazine (on newsstands August 28 – October 2), reported aggregate revenue of $16 billion and median three-year growth of 939 percent. Most important, the 2007 Inc. 500 companies were engines of job growth, having created more than 64,064 jobs since those companies were founded.

Methodology

The 2007 Inc. 500 list measures revenue growth from 2003 through 2006. To qualify, companies had to be U.S.-based, privately held independent – not subsidiaries or divisions of other companies – as of December 31, 2006. Revenue in 2003 must have been at least $200,000, and revenue in 2006 must have been at least $2 million.
